

National University of Study and Research in Law, Ranchi

Date: 13/9/2017

Notice

All the Students, Faculty Members and Staffs are informed hereby that the obstruction in the normal academic functioning of the University by a handful of students without any justifiable cause shall not be permitted to disturb the normal functioning of classes, Continuous Assessment Test (CAT) and Court Room Exercise (CRE).

There will be no postponement of Continuous Assessment Test (CAT) and Court Room Exercise (CRE) and the students abstaining from these internal examinations shall lose the proportionate weightage in the Semester End Examinations. It is further informed that the students not attending the classes will lose the attendance on account of the illegal protest.
