INDIAN CONSTITUTION AND MINORITIES : DR. AMBEDKAR'S PERSPECTIVE

15th April, 2019 at 5 p.m in University Plenary Hall

CONCEPT NOTE

“Democracy is not merely a form of Government. It is primarily a mode of associated living, of conjoint communicated experience. It is essentially an attitude of respect and reverence towards fellowmen.” - Dr. B. R. Ambedkar in ‘Annihilation of Caste’

This above state quote summarises the political ideologies and beliefs of Dr. Bhim Rao Babasaheb Ambedkar. In him, we have not only a crusader against the caste system, a valiant fighter for the cause of the downtrodden in India but also an elder statesman and national leader whose contribution in the form of the Constitution of India will be cherished forever by posterity. He was a staunch supporter of equality and therefore, ardently spoke against majoritarianism.

Babasaheb Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, the Chief Architect of Indian Constitution was a scholar par excellence, a philosopher, a visionary, an emancipator and a true nationalist. He led a number of social movements to secure human rights to the oppressed and depressed sections of the society. He stands as a symbol of struggle for social justice.

Dr. Ambedkar's writings are as relevant today as were back then. It is because of his firm belief that our political democracy must stand on the base of social democracy that our Constitution provides for recognition of liberty, equality and fraternity as the principles of life. According to him if we want to maintain democracy not merely in form, but also in fact, we must hold fast to constitutional methods of achieving social and economic objectives.

Dr. Ambedkar was a supreme social architect who looked upon law as the instrument of creating a balanced social order in which the development of every individual would be in harmony with the growth of society. It is in pursuance of Dr. Ambedkar's ideology and philosophy which would be beneficial to our nation building endeavour that on eve of Ambedkar Jayanti we have come together to celebrate his teachings.

On the eve of Ambedkar Jayanti, Constitutional Law Club of NUSRL is organizing Lectures on topic, 'Indian Constitution and Minorities: Dr.Ambedker's Perspective' by eminent persons.
